

David GLORY

French nationality
32 years old

david.glory@mailo.com

CREDO
Aix Marseille Université
3, place Victor Hugo
13003 Marseille - FRANCE

CERTIFICATION

- 2021 PhD Anthropology at EHESS (School for Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences) and CREDO UMR 7308 (AMU, CNRS, EHESS), Centre for Research and Documentation on Oceania, FRANCE. Thesis title : "When change is overdue : uses and impacts of climate change discourse in Ma'uke and Manihiki, Cook Islands". Directed by Laurent Dousset.
- 2015 Second year research Master of development studies - "Developing Societies: political realignments, mobility, territories". Institute of social, economic development studies (IEDES), University Paris I Panthéon – Sorbonne, FRANCE.
- 2013 Second year Professional Master of development studies - "Social development: Work, training and health". (IEDES) University Paris I Panthéon – Sorbonne, FRANCE.
- 2012 First year Master of Anthropology. University Lumière Lyon 2 (with honors), FRANCE.
- 2011 Graduation Anthropology degree. University Lumière Lyon 2 (with honors), FRANCE.

RESEARCH AREA

Insularity: Oceania, Polynesia, Cook Islands.

Anthropology of disasters: perception, reconstruction and social dynamics.

Anthropology of nature: relationship and perception of the environment in movement.

Anthropology of climate change: adaptation and social recompositions

Anthropology of development: "sustainable development", "North-South" relationship and development policies.

FIELDWORK EXPERIENCE (32 months total)

- 2018 (6 months) COOK ISLANDS : Rarotonga, Ma'uke, Manihiki
2017 (9 months) COOK ISLANDS : Rarotonga, Ma'uke, Manihiki
2015 (5 months) COOK ISLANDS : Rarotonga, Ma'uke
2013 (6 months) MADAGASCAR : Antananarivo, Fianarantsoa
2012 (6 months) SÉNÉGAL : Saint-Louis

PEER-REVIEW PAPERS

Glory, D. 2019. "Is it climate change or not?" or how the relationship to scientists influences the perception of climate change in Ma'uke and Manihiki (Cook Islands), Ethnographiques.org, 38. <https://doi.org/10.25667/ethnographiques/2019-38/007>

Glory, D. 2019. "Yes it's because of the climate change but... what does it mean climate?". The temporality of climate change in question in Ma'uke, Cook Islands, Journal of the Society of Ocean Scientists, 149 | 2019, 257-266. <https://doi.org/10.4000/jso.11190>

BOOK CHAPTERS

Glory, D. 2021. Two or four seasons in a time of climate change? Origins and power relations between knowledge about seasons in Ma'uke (Cook Islands) in Metzger, A. (ed). Acclimatizations - Sur le terrain des cultures climatiques. Hermann, Meteos collection, 137-155. <https://www.editions-hermann.fr/livre/9791037014658>

TALKS

Seminars

2022 Two or four seasons in a changing climate? Origins and power relations between knowledge relating to the seasons in Ma'uke (Cook Islands). Perception du climat seminar "Acclimatation, adaptation", ENS, Paris, February 1st.

2019 The experience of time in climate change adaptation practices in the Cook Islands. EHESS seminar - Actualité de la recherche en Océanie' of CREDO, Marseille, 29 March.

2017 Building a comparative approach: elements of reflection around a field return on climate change perceptions in the Cook Islands. IRD New Caledonia institutional seminar, Noumea, 14 June 2017.

Workshops

2018 From island to island, mythological cartography in Polynesia. Cartographic installation with Alice Fromonteil, Catherine Pellini and Diego Munoz. Day of expographic research "Describing the landscape of the island" as part of the preparatory meetings for the exhibition "Le Temps des Îles" (MUCEM), March 26.

Exhibitions

2018 From island to island, mythological cartography in Polynesia. Cartographic installation with Alice Fromonteil, Catherine Pellini and Diego Munoz as part of the anthropology festival, "Enquête!", organised by the MAAOA (Museum of African, Oceanian and Amerindian Arts), the EHESS, the CNE and the CREDO at the Vieille Charité (Marseille), on June 2-3.

Public broadcasting

2016 "Welcome to the Real World" behind the scenes of climate change adaptation in Ma'uke (Cook Islands). Conference as part of the cycle "Les Dessous des Sciences Sociales" at the Bibliothèque Municipale de Marseille - Alcazar, 29 April 2016.

TEACHING

2021 Beyond climate change prejudices: the case of the Cook Islands. Anthropology of Oceania (HAN4U02), Aix-Marseille University. (Lecture, 3h, L3, 8 students).

2019 Climate change in the Cook Islands: what ethnology can contribute. Anthropology of Asia and the Pacific (HAN2U06), Aix-Marseille University. (Lecture, 1.5h, L1, 40 students).

2018 Combining 'uncertainty' and 'adaptation' in the context of climate change. A critical reading of development actions on the islands of Ma'uke and Manihiki (Cook Islands). (ETH T13-T8C) - Social development and education in a post-disaster context, Aix-Marseille University, MMSH, Aix-en-Provence, (Lecture, 4.5h, M2, 15 students).

INSTITUTIONAL COMMITMENTS

2019 - 2020 Co-organizer of the Interlaboratory Anthropology Seminar of Aix-Marseille University entitled "In the beginning was childhood", relationship to Nature and humanization process, <https://silaam.hypotheses.org/>

2018 - 2020 Co-organiser of the EHESS Seminar l'Atelier des doctorants (CREDO – CNE).

2017 - 2021 Representative of the CREDO doctoral students to the doctoral school (ED 286) of EHESS.

2015 - 2021 Representative of the doctoral students within the CREDO.

2015 - 2021 Member of the Ethics Committee within the CREDO.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2013 (6 months) Local development NGO FFF Malagasy Mahomby (Madagascar).

- Assessment, recommendation of alphabetization and post-alphabetization project.
- Redesigned and updated the website of the association.

2012 (2 months) Local development NGO Concept (Sénégal).

- Microfinance Training on AJEC project funding by International Plan.
- Assessment on ILO funded project.

2009 (6 months) French Red Cross (Rennes).

- Marauding and food distribution.

Linguistic skill: French (mother language), English (operational).

Information technology : Microsoft Office, Zotero, QDAMiner, QGIS.