FIELDWORK

I have conducted anthropological fieldwork in Vanuatu, on the island of Ambrym and in the capital of Port Vila for 9 months in 1995-1996, for six months in 1999 and again for six months in 2000. In 2006 I did two months of fieldwork in the capital of Port Vila in Vanuatu.

I have also altogether done archive- studies at the University of Hawaii and one months of fieldwork in Kauai Island of Hawaii: first in October of 2006, then in January 2008 and March 2009.

In 2010 I again spent five months in Port Vila, collecting materials on developments in sorcery accusation and its state responses. In 2014 I again did two months fieldwork in Port Vila, around the Vanuatu National Workers Union.

In 2016 I initiated a new project in France and spent five months in Paris; focusing on the cultural history of the Bois de Boulogne public park and its status as a commons for the population of Paris.
